DECLARATION OF THE SAMORA MACHEL MEMORIAL AND CRASH SITE AS NATIONAL HERITAGE SITES

CORRECTION NOTICE

Government Notice no 1219 published in Government Gazette no 40334 on 07 October 2016 is hereby corrected

By virtue of the powers vested in the South African Heritage Resources Agency, in terms of section 27 (5) of the National Heritage Resources Act (No. 25 of 1999) SAHRA hereby declares the Samora Machel Memorial and Crash Site, Mbuzini, Mpumalanga as a National Heritage Site

Statement of Significance

The site commemorates the tragic plane crash in which the then president of Mozambique and loyal supporter of South African Struggle, Samora Machel was killed. The site pays homage to Samora Machel and his inestimable contribution to the establishment of peace and democracy in southern Africa. He has become a revered martyr of the struggle against the forces of Apartheid and Colonialism on the African Continent. The memorial is a symbol of the crucial moral and material support given by the Frontier States to the South African liberation struggle, often at great costs, and honours the people of Mozambique and their solidarity towards the liberation of South Africa.
