PART III

SAMPLING PROCEDURES

Obtaining a sample of the consignment

13. At least two percent in a consignment shall be drawn at random for inspection purposes and an inspector shall be satisfied that the containers so drawn are representative of the consignment concerned.

Obtaining an inspection sample

14. An inspection sample shall be drawn from each container obtained in accordance with regulation 13 and consist of the entire contents of the container.

Deviating sample

15. If an inspector should notice during the process of drawing the random sample or during the inspection, that some of the containers derived from any part of the pallet load, truck load or consignment, contain pineapples which are noticeably inferior to or differ from the contents of the containers which represent the remainder of the pallet load, truck load or consignment, the inspection results shall be based only on the containers derived from the deviating portion of the pallet load, truck load or consignment, and further samples required for inspection shall be drawn from this deviating portion.

METHODS OF INSPECTION

Determination of internal deviations

16. Internal deviations in pineapples shall be determined as follows:

- (1) Take as working sample the pineapples which, in the opinion of the inspector, are the most likely to have been affected by internal deviations from the inspection sample obtained in accordance with regulation 14.

- (2) Peel the pineapples.
- (3) Cut each of the pineapples in the length in disks of about 6 mm thick.
- (4) Calculate the number of pineapples thus found to be affected by internal deviations, as a percentage of the total number of pineapples in the inspection sample.
- (5) Determine the average percentage of all the inspection samples taken in accordance with regulation 14.

Determination of brix

17. (1) The brix of the pineapples in a consignment shall be determined with a calibrated refractometer.

(2) At least ten fruit shall be taken from the containers drawn for inspection in regulation 14, for the obtaining of a representative juice sample (the fruit must preferably be taken from different containers). Both halves of each fruit should be tested.

(3) A representative juice sample shall be obtained as follows:

- (a) Use a knife to cut each of the ten fruit obtained in subregulation 17 (2) in half at right angles to its longitudinal axis.
- (b) Use a knife to repeatedly prick the flesh of the cut fruits as thoroughly as possible.
- (c) Squeeze the cut half in order to obtain juice.

(4) To determine brix, the following procedure shall be followed:

- (a) Clean the prism plate with distilled water and wipe off with a clean, dry tissue.
- (b) Place an equal number of two or more juice drops on the prism plate of the refractometer.
- (c) Note the reading on the prism scale to one decimal place.
- (d) Determine the average reading of the ten fruits.
- (e) Such average reading represents the brix of the consignment concerned.

(5) If the test does not comply, another sample shall be drawn and tested. The consignment shall be approved if the average of all the ten fruits thus tested complies with the aforesaid prescribed requirement. If the second test of the average of all ten fruits thus tested doesn't comply with the aforesaid prescribed requirement the consignment shall be rejected.

Offence and penalties

18. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of these regulations, shall be guilty of an offence and may upon conviction be liable to a fine or to imprisonment in terms of section 11 of the Act.

 - b. Invites interested persons to make written representations concerning the intended declaration so as to reach the Registrar within 21 days after the date of publication of this notice;
 - c. Advises that the final declaration will not be published until at least 60 days after the date of this notice.
- 2 Written representations must be addressed to: The Registrar of Medical Schemes (Attention: Alicia Schoeman), Block A, Eco Glades, 2 Office Park, 420 Witch-Hazel Avenue, Eco Park, Centurion, or email: legal@medicalschemes.com.

PURPOSE

- 1 Selection of dedicated service providers
 - 1.1 Chapter 3 of the Regulations in terms of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998 entitles a medical scheme to select healthcare providers as dedicated service providers to provide to its members diagnosis, treatment and care in respect of prescribed minimum benefit conditions.
 - 1.2 According to information provided to the Registrar, some medical schemes:
 - (1) Unilaterally and without restriction determine the criteria to apply when selecting their dedicated service providers (DSPs).
 - (2) Select DSPs without engaging in a fair procurement or tender process and without considering applications or tenders to join their DSP network from all interested service providers.
 - (3) Thus unfairly limit the number of selected service providers (including pharmacies) available to provide the healthcare services to the members.
 - (4) Oblige members only to use a limited number of DSPs or to risk paying exorbitant co-payments.

- 1.3 Among other things this practice has prevented many healthcare service providers, including independent community pharmacies, the opportunity to join the DSP network of such schemes even though they are willing and able to provide healthcare services at the same fee rate as the selected DSPs.

2 Unfair penalty co-payments

According to information provided to the Registrar, some medical schemes:

- 2.1 Specify in their rules the quantum of Regulation 8(2)(b) co-payments for pharmaceutical products which amount to penalty co-payments;
- 2.2 Calculated the penalty co-payments as a percentage of the total script dispensed by pharmacies which consists of the Single Exit Price (cost price) of the medicine plus the dispensing fee rate charged by the service provider pharmacy which unfairly penalises members who do not use the designated service provider.

3 Draft declaration

Subject to written representations made by interested persons in response to this notice, the Registrar may, with the concurrence of the Council for Medical Schemes and the Minister of Health declare the following business practices as irregular and undesirable for all medical schemes:

- 3.1 The selection by a medical scheme of a healthcare provider or group of providers as the preferred provider or providers to provide to its members the diagnosis, treatment and care in respect of one or more prescribed minimum benefit conditions, namely as designated service providers without engaging in a tender process which is fair, equitable, transparent, competitive and cost-effective.
- 3.2 Imposing a co-payment in terms of Regulation 8(2)(b) that exceeds the quantum of the difference between that charged by the designated service provider of the medical scheme and that charged by a provider that is not a designated service provider of such scheme.
- 4 The Registrar hereby invites interested parties to make written representations regarding the proposed declaration so as to reach the Registrar within 21 days after the date of publication of this notice.
