SOUTH AFRICAN SIGN LANGUAGE CHARTER

INTRODUCTION

WHEREAS the Pan South African Language Board (PanSALB) was foreshadowed in Section 6(5) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 (Act No. 108 of 1996), the Constitution, and established through the Pan South African Language Board Act 59 of 1995;

RECOGNISING that the Constitution requires PanSALB to promote, and create conditions for the development and use of South African Sign Language (SASL)

REAFFIRMING that the Constitution requires PanSALB to ensure respect for all languages commonly used by communities in South Africa;

ACKNOWLEDGING that the South African Deaf community is not a single homogenous group of people and that there are several unique Sign Languages that have developed and are used in different parts of the world;

CONSIDERING that the South African Sign Language was officially included in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa of 1996 as the primary language used by the Deaf community in South Africa and is a fully-fledged language that is indigenous to South Africa;

THEREFORE, PanSALB, through the South African Sign Language national language Body (SASL NLB) produced this Charter that:

- a) applies to all segments of the South African society;
- b) sets out key Pledges that take into consideration the inter-relatedness of the challenges facing the Deaf community as well as the need for cross-sectoral policies and programmes pertaining to the needs of the Deaf community in a holistic manner; and
- c) creates obligations, through the Pledges, that are intended to not only improve the Deaf community's access to quality information and services in general, but also to ensure the effective protection of the linguistic rights of the Deaf community in a manner that is equitable and courteous

PLEDGE 1THERE MUST BE A BETTER UNDERSTANDING, NATIONALLY, OF SASL AS A LANGUAGE IN ITS OWN RIGHT

1. South African Sign Language (SASL) is the primary language of Deaf persons in South Africa and must be respected as a language of choice to be used in all interactions. It is an indigenous language that constitutes an important element of South African linguistic and cultural heritage.
2. Notably, SASL has its own distinct grammatical structures and lexicon and it is independent of any other language. It is conveyed by means of parameters (handshapes, location, movement, palm-orientation and non-manual features). Furthermore, SASL is capable of expressing the entire range of human experience and it is useful for communication in every setting. It also provides a source of delight through artistic forms of expression. In addition, SASL facilitates the expression by the Deaf community of, among others, social relationships and cultural identity.
3. Importantly, SASL is not a communication option or a tool for inclusion. Instead, it is a primary and native language in its own right. Therefore, the use of SASL in all forms of communication and interaction in South Africa will be of benefit to all the people of South Africa.
4. Now, therefore, all South Africans must:
 - 4.1 Take steps aimed at ensuring that SASL is advanced, promoted, maintained and regularly used in all aspects of life in South Africa;
 - 4.2 Ensure that SASL is protected and preserved as part of Deaf Culture and heritage.

PLEDGE 2

THERE MUST BE SELF-DETERMINATION BY DEAF PEOPLE

1. The principle of equality and the disability movement's "Nothing about Us without Us" underlies all our claims in this Charter.
2. Section 9 of the Constitution provides that no person may be unfairly discriminated against based on, among others, disability. In line with the principle of equality, Deaf people have an inherent right to represent themselves in any aspect of their lives. In addition, they have the right to privacy and to expect and receive adequate advice and be consulted on an ongoing basis on their needs.
3. Now, therefore, all South Africans must:
 - 3.1 accept, recognise and respect the Deaf person's inherent right to use SASL; and self-determination
 - 3.2 create a society where SASL is advanced, promoted, maintained and regularly used in all aspects of Deaf persons' life in South Africa.
 - 3.3 ensure that decisions are not made on behalf of Deaf people in any setting; without their informed consent

PLEDGE 3THERE MUST BE A PROMOTION OF LEARNING AND HIGH QUALITY TEACHING OF SOUTH AFRICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

We recognise that South African Sign Language is a primary means of communication and a carrier of Deaf culture. The right to have access to learning, and use South African Sign Language is not a privilege or luxury, but a basic human right for all.

Now, therefore, all South Africans must:

1. Instead, learning, using and having access to SASL is recognised as a basic human right for all people.

2. Now, therefore:

- 2.1 there must be a maintenance of high standards and impeccable quality in the teaching and assessment of SASL at all times;
- 2.2 SASL Practitioners and Educators must be professionally qualified and well-resourced and they should be well trained in SASL and Deaf culture as well as in SASL literature;
- 2.3 Deaf schools and higher education institutions must have SASL literature as part of SASL curriculum;
- 2.4 all SASL educational materials should be verified and authenticated by PanSALB through the SASL NLB;
- 2.5 continuous professional development of SASL Practitioners, Educators and Teaching Assistants must be maintained through the creation of accessible learning opportunities and resources;
- 2.6 the appointment of SASL practitioners, Educators and teaching assistants as well as the appointment of SASL subject advisors, Deaf persons must be given first preference provided that minimum requirements are met;
- 2.7 SASL Practitioners, Educators and Teaching Assistants should have access to skills development through qualifications that are accredited by the South African Qualifications Authority;
- 2.8 SASL Practitioners, Educators and Teaching Assistants should be accredited as such by a recognised skills authority.

- 2.9 Parents, guardians and caregivers of Deaf children must be afforded the opportunity to learn SASL and, where necessary, they should receive financial support from spheres of government and private sectors.
- 2.10 early identification of deafness at clinics, hospitals and schools and the implementation of appropriate intervention measures must be promoted;
- 2.11 all Deaf children must have access to quality early childhood development, care and education;
- 2.12 Higher Education institutions in South Africa must require students who are studying towards a qualification in SASL related specialisation, to carry out Deaf community service before being granted the qualification;
- 2.13 a teaching and learning programme focusing on tactile signing is encouraged and must be created;
- 2.14 Different types of digital dictionaries must be developed to support SASL users and learners;
- 2.15 every Deaf child must be allowed the joy of learning and understanding Deaf culture and SASL literature; and
- 2.16 mechanisms must be put in place for SASL experts to monitor and evaluate the overall use of SASL.

PLEDGE 4MULTILINGUAL DEAF EDUCATION FOR DEAF CHILDREN MUST BE ENCOURAGED AND PROMOTED

We recognise that education is a fundamental human right and the main driver of development. We reaffirm our focus on efforts of access, equity and inclusion, quality and learning outcomes and the mainstreaming SASL in teacher training and curricula.

Now, therefore:

1. Multilingual education is a fundamental human right and the main driver of development. As such, this Charter reaffirms its commitment to efforts aimed at ensuring the accessibility, equity, inclusion and the mainstreaming of SASL in the training of SASL Practitioners, Educators and Teaching Assistants. In this regard, SASL must be included in South African school curriculum in order to ensure a multilingual education, which includes SASL in South African schools.
2. Now, therefore:
 - 2.1 All Deaf children must enjoy the right to a multilingual education and they must be involved in decisions and choices concerning their multilingual education.
 - 2.2 The right of Deaf learners to learn other official languages of their choice must be given effect.
 - 2.3 All members of the Deaf community, including children, youth and adults, must be provided with lifelong learning opportunities to learn and to be trained in SASL.
 - 2.4 Deaf people must be provided with equitable and increased access to quality technical and vocational education and training and higher education, research, and quality assurance.
 - 2.5 Language development and communication needs of Deaf children must be given special attention in order to ensure equitable, Early Childhood Development (ECD) Foundation, Intermediate and senior phase Further Education and Training (FET) education and higher education.
 - 2.6 All staff members at Deaf schools and institutions must have satisfactory SASL proficiency levels.
 - 2.7 (a) Deaf children must be provided with support in their language development from early stage.
(b) Hearing children of Deaf adults have the right to acquire SASL as their home language.

- 2.8 The Department of Education and relevant stakeholders must increasingly provide support to ensure that suitably trained educators with a qualification in SASL are recruited as SASL educators within schools.
- 2.9 When the critical mass of educators with formal qualification in SASL is adequate to service more than only schools for the Deaf, then SASL FAL curriculum should be written and SASL can be made available as a subject choice that is taught at ordinary schools.
- 2.10 There must be recognition of SASL and cultural diversity at schools and across society.

PLEDGE 5THERE MUST BE GUARANTEED ACCESSIBILITY TO SERVICES AND INFORMATION

The effect, among others, of having a limited use of SASL is that the Deaf community is presented with barriers in various aspects of life. There are innumerable barriers for the Deaf community in accessing information and services and in seeking to fully participate in various activities and initiatives as a result of the limited use of SASL.

Now, therefore:

We recognise the importance of removing barriers to access to information to enable Deaf people to access local services and information and to participate fully and lead independent lives in all aspects of life. It is our responsibility to ensure that.

This SASL Charter recognises the importance of removing the barriers to enable the Deaf community to have equal access to information and services and to participate fully and lead independent lives in all aspects of life.

Now, therefore:

1. Training and awareness campaign, including Deaf sensitisation training, must be provided on an ongoing basis, particularly for front facing/and front-line employees at all entities;
2. Whenever SASL interpreting services are required, the interpreting must be carried out by SASL interpreters and Deaf interpreters who are appropriately qualified, suitable and acceptable;
3. Video-relay communications centres, contacted with local Deaf associations, must be established to enable the Deaf community to contact local authorities using SASL in case of emergency;
4. Service providers and the members of the public must be sensitive and knowledgeable towards the Deaf community and Deaf culture;
5. Technology must be made available to facilitate public display systems so that public announcements can be made through SASL or close captioning, particularly at the public transport points, train stations, airports, banks, hospitals and other similar points;
6. Close captions and subtitles must be diligently provided across all television programmes, live streaming, social media and real time captioning;

7. South African TV channels must have Deaf interpreters and SASL interpreters inserted in all TV programmes, important announcements and speeches, emergencies and national commemorations.

PLEDGE 6PERSONS WORKING WITH DEAF PEOPLE MUST MEET THE MINIMUM STANDARDS OF COMPETENCY IN SOUTH AFRICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

All staff members who deal regularly with Deaf people should receive awareness training and learn basic SASL. Staff who provide essential and support services and deal more frequently with Deaf people, for example social workers, police officers should receive advanced level training (level three).

1. It is critical that all public servants who engage with the Deaf people meet the minimum standards of competency in SASL.

2. Now therefore:

- 2.1 SASL awareness and training should be mandatory to all staff members in the employ of government including municipalities, non-governmental organisations or in the private sector.
- 2.2 all staff members in the employ of government, non-governmental organisations or the private sector and who provide essential and support services to, and engage more frequently with, the Deaf community (i.e. health care workers, administrators and members of the South African Police Service, etc.), must receive Deaf sensitisation training and be taught from basic to advanced level in SASL.
- 2.3 SASL Awareness and SASL training should be given to the government, non-governmental organisations or the private sector by organisations of Deaf and Hard of hearing and not to a hearing person.

PLEDGE 7LOCAL DEAF COMMUNITIES MUST BE CONSULTED ON A REGULAR BASIS

Local Deaf communities should be consulted on an ongoing basis to ensure that services are appropriate for and responsive to local needs and promote accountability and transparency, participatory governance and coordinated partnerships.

1. In addition to promoting accountability, transparency and ensuring that the concept of participatory governance is given effect, those who provide services to members of the Deaf community must engage with the members of such a community so that coordinated partnerships with the Deaf community can be formed and enhanced.

2. Now, therefore:

- 2.1 the Deaf community must be consulted on an ongoing basis to ensure that services are appropriate for, and responsive to, the needs of each local Deaf community; and
- 2.2 Deaf organisations must be involved in the community service training and be invited to participate in state-supported training programmes.
- 2.3 Deaf community members must be invited to and participate in all government events and public engagements including izimbizo, lekgotlas, Macufe, etc. and SASL interpreting services must be provided.

PLEDGE 8PROFESSIONAL SASL INTERPRETING AND TRANSLATION SERVICES MUST BE READILY AVAILABLE

SASL interpreter and translator who are able to interpret effectively, accurately and impartially both receptively and expressively, using any necessary specialised vocabulary

1. SASL Interpreters and translators must use their SASL skills and spoken languages skills (or any other official South African Languages including Khoe and San languages) to bridge the communication gap.
2. The information that the SASL Interpreters and translators hears in the spoken language must be conveyed to a Deaf person in SASL whereas the information expressed by a Deaf person in SASL should be conveyed to the hearing people in the spoken language that they prefer.

3. Now , therefore:

- 3.1 whenever there is planning for meetings, conferences, workshops, seminars events and activities, all efforts must be made to communicate with Deaf persons well in advance in order to arrange the most linguistically appropriate services.
- 3.2 All Deaf Interpreters and SASL Interpreters must be professionals who are fluent in the use of SASL and any of the official languages including Khoe and San languages where applicable.
- 3.3 All Deaf interpreters and SASL Interpreters must sign the Code of Ethics of the profession and adhere to the Code. Deaf clients of Deaf interpreters must be empowered with the training of code of Ethics and the role of SASL interpreting.
- 3.4 Deaf interpreters and SASL Interpreters must facilitate communication in a neutral manner that ensures equal access to information and participation.
- 3.5 Deaf people have the right to utilise Deaf Interpreters and SASL Interpreters of their own choice who are qualified, suitable and acceptable and therefore SASL users/Deaf participants must be consulted on their SASL Interpreter preferences.
- 3.6 A National Interpreting Resource Centre must be established to assist in the training, regulation, monitoring and maintenance of databases of accredited, qualified and experienced professional SASL Interpreters. The National Interpreting Resource Centre must also make South African Sign language Interpreters (SASLI) accessible to whoever requires their services.

- 3.7 SASL Trainers and Interpreters must be accredited and be in possession of qualifications that are accredited by the South African Qualifications Authority.
- 3.8 Government, non-governmental organisations and the private sector must appoint and/or source SASL Interpreters for their Deaf employees for meetings, workshops and training seminars that they organise.
- 3.9 Deaf organisations should monitor and evaluate the performance of SASL Interpreters and Deaf Interpreters.
- 3.10 SASL Interpreters should undergo refresher training for a week every 6 months.
- 3.11 In all events that last for more than two hours and at which SASL Interpreters or Deaf Interpreters are required to provide interpreting services, at least two Deaf Interpreters or SASL Interpreters must be sourced.
- 3.12 Deaf people should be consulted on whether they prefer SASL Interpreters to stand or sit in front of their audience, as Deaf people are
- 3.13 Tactile signing is another form of communication that takes place through feeling signs being made by the interpreter (Deaf-Blind) and is related to SASL and must be made available wherever such a service is required.

1. BACKGROUND

The Built Environment is defined as the physical world intentionally created through science and technology for the benefit of mankind. Parliament, in recognition of the crucial role that built environment professionals play in South African society passed seven Acts in 2000 to regulate six built environment professions, namely architecture, engineering, landscape architecture, project and construction management, property valuation and quantity surveying and the Council for the Built Environment as an overarching body over the activities of said six councils (hereafter to as the CBEP).

The identified scope of work for each category of registration is seen as a component of a framework to regulate the built environment professions. The South African Council for the Architectural Profession (SACAP), will in consultation with the CBE, develop an Identification of Work Policy that will, in conjunction with this identified scope of work and other instruments, form the framework to regulate the Architectural Profession.

The identified scope of work is aligned to Architectural training programs accredited by SACAP at Institutions of Higher Learning.

Therefore, all new entrants into the profession will be registered in the appropriate category, based on their professional qualification.

Currently registered persons have to a large extent been registered in accordance with the above provisions. The following mechanisms will be introduced to enable registration in accordance with registration requirements where persons performing identified work do not comply with these requirements:

1. Special Consent,
2. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL),
3. Transitional arrangements.

2. AMBIT OF THE SCOPE OF WORK

- 1.3 The Attorneys Act means the Attorneys Act 53 of 1979.

- 1.5 Legal practitioner includes an attorney and an advocate whether practising with or without a fidelity fund certificate.

- 1.10 The professional controlling body as referred to in the Act means the Legal Practice Council as established and contemplated in terms of the Legal Practice 2014.
- 1.11 Normal Fees means the reasonable fees which may be charged by such practitioner for such work, if such fees are taxed or assessed on an attorney and own client basis, in the absence of a Contingency Fees Agreement, as defined in Section 1 of the Act.
- 1.12 A success fee means a fee contemplated in Section 2(1)(b) read together with Section 2(2) of the Act which is in addition to the normal fee. To be clear: the entire higher fee to be charged, comprising the normal fee together with the additional amount will constitute the successs fee. The success fee is not just the additional amount, but the total of those two amounts, being the normal fee plus the additional amount.

2. Form and content of a contingency fee agreement

- 2.1 A contingency fee agreement shall be in the form as prescribed by the Minister of Justice under Section 3 (1) (a) of the Act, being the form published in Government Notice No R547 of 23 April 1999 (Government Gazette No 20009) as per Form 1 annexed to these rules or any subsequent Form that might be promulgated in terms of Section 3(1) of the Act from time to time.
- 2.2 A contingency fee agreement shall be completed in all respects prior to signature by the client and all the legal practitioners (attorney, correspondent attorney and advocate, if applicable) who are parties to

- 2.4 A legal practitioner who is party to a contingency fee agreement shall, at the time of the acceptance of the mandate, or within a reasonable period of time thereafter, record in writing, to the client, his or her tariff of normal fees in respect of attendances pertaining to the proceedings for the purposes of Section 3 of the Act and paragraph 5 of Form 1.
- 2.5 After commencement of chapter 3 of the Legal Practice Act, an attorney who is party to contingency fee agreement shall annex to that agreement a copy of the cost estimate notice furnished in terms of Section 35 (7) as read with Section 35 (12) of the Legal Practice Act 28 of 2014 (the Legal Practice Act).

3. Disbursements

- 3.1 The contingency fee agreement shall record the manner in which disbursements made or to be incurred by the legal practitioner on behalf of the client shall be dealt with.

3.2 If the client is responsible for funding disbursements the legal practitioner shall account to the client from time to time in respect of monies disbursed during the conduct of the proceedings.

3.3 If the legal practitioner has undertaken to pay or incur disbursements on behalf of the client pending the conclusion of the proceedings the legal practitioner shall be entitled to charge interest on monies so disbursed, provided that this is done lawfully by the legal practitioner, in particular in accordance with the provisions of the Prescribed Rate of Interest Act 55 of 1975, and/or in compliance with up the provisions of the National Credit Act 34 of 2005.

4. Premature termination of mandate

4.1 In the event of a client terminating a mandate to a legal practitioner before the proceedings have been finalised and/or before affording the legal practitioner an opportunity to achieve success or partial success, the client shall be liable to pay to the legal practitioner all fees and disbursements paid or incurred by him or her as at the date of termination of mandate provided however that, before the practitioner is obliged to hand over his or her file, the practitioner will be entitled to demand a written undertaking from the client and/or the new legal practitioner that such fees and disbursements will be paid in accordance with the agreement upon the successful or partially successful conclusion of the proceedings.

- 4.2 The legal practitioner whose mandate has been cancelled shall upon receipt of the termination of mandate cause an attorney and own client Bill of Costs to be prepared in accordance with the agreed tariff as per the contingency fee agreement.
- 4.3 Any legal practitioner who takes over proceedings pursuant to a termination of mandate shall, before doing so, advise the client concerned of the fact that additional costs will be incurred as a result.
- 4.4 Any legal practitioner taking over the further conduct of proceedings pursuant to a termination of mandate shall be obliged to hold the first legal practitioner covered for all reasonable fees and disbursements (if payment of disbursements was deferred by agreement) to be paid as a first charge against the proceeds of the claim.
- 4.5 If the client disputes that he or she is liable to pay any fees to the legal practitioner whose mandate has been terminated, the legal practitioner taking over the proceedings shall be obliged to advise the first legal practitioner that there is a potential dispute regarding fees and/or disbursements before taking possession of the client's file.
- 4.6 In the event of any dispute arising as to the sharing of fees at the conclusion of the proceedings both legal practitioners shall prepare attorney and own client bills for taxation, if necessary, which bills shall form the basis for dividing the allowed fees pro rata between the legal practitioners involved.
- 4.7 In the event of a dispute nevertheless arising as to the sharing of fees, such dispute shall be referred to the Legal Practice Council or relevant

Provincial Council or other delegated body for adjudication, which decision shall be final and binding on the parties concerned.

5. Settlement

Any affidavits filed with the Legal Practice Council in terms of Section 4 of the Act shall be accompanied by a complete copy of the contingency fee agreement and, after commencement of section 35(7) of the Legal Practice Act, the prescribed cost estimate.

6. Further Provisions

- 6.1 Where a contingency fee agreement provides that upon success a legal practitioner shall be entitled to fees equal to his or her normal fee, such fee is not subject to the limitations and cap set out in Section 2 (2) of the Act.
- 6.2 Where a contingency fee agreement provides that upon success a legal practitioner shall be entitled to fees higher than his or her normal fee, such fee is subject to the limitations and cap set out in Section 2 (2) of the Act.
- 6.3 Where the attorney acts in a contingency fee matter for an amount equivalent only to the attorney's normal fee then, provided the said written estimate has been furnished, it shall not be necessary to draw a formal bill of costs as a matter of course. However, in the case where an attorney concludes a contingency fee agreement for his normal fee plus an additional amount (i.e the situation referred to above, namely normal fee plus additional amount comprising in total a "success fee"), then it will be necessary in each case for the attorney to draw a formal bill of costs at the conclusion of the matter and to furnish that to the client. It shall not be necessary to tax that bill of costs, however, save in the event that the client requests this or that this is necessary in the event of a complaint lodged by some person with locus standi, in which event the bill of costs must be submitted to the appropriate authority for taxation.

- 6.4 In terms of Section 5 of the Act, the Legal Practice Council, Provincial Council or designated Body may review any agreement and set aside any provision of that agreement or fees claimable in terms thereof if it is of the opinion that the provision or the fees are unreasonable or unjust.
- 6.5 In calculating the total amount awarded or obtained for the purposes of Section 2 (2) of the Act, no account shall be taken of the value of an undertaking issued by the Road Accident Fund in terms of section 17 (4) of the Road Accident Fund Act 56 of 1996 (the RAF Act).
- 6.6 Where costs are recovered in addition to capital, an attorney shall account in full to the client for the costs so recovered in the same manner as for capital. A contingency fee agreement may not provide for party and party costs to be retained in addition to a normal or higher than normal fee.
- 6.7 The “success fee” referred to in Section 2 (2) of the Act, is the total of the “normal” fee and the “higher than normal” fee. The limitation and cap referred to in Section 2 (2) applies to the total fee charged by a legal practitioner or practitioners in any one claim.

- 6.8 If more than one legal practitioner is entitled to higher than normal fees in terms of a contingency fees agreement, the total of all fees charged shall be subject to the limitation and cap referred to in Section 2 (2) of the Act.
- 6.9 If any other legal practitioner is contracted, by the practitioner with whom the client has entered into a contingency fee agreement, to render services on behalf of the client, whether as counsel or as a correspondent attorney or as an attorney as the case may be, such fees are to be treated as disbursements subject to what is set out in paragraph 6.10 below.
- 6.10 It shall not be permissible to act in terms of a scheme where the use of counsel or a correspondent attorney or attorney is intended to bypass the provisions of the Act such that the instructing attorney does effectively little or no work and the functions are delegated to the counsel, correspondent attorney or attorney. If it is demonstrated that this has occurred then on this ground alone the contingency fee agreement and any fees charged in terms thereof by one or more or all of the practitioners involved may be set aside. Such conduct if established will be treated as an abuse of process and will be ipso facto unprofessional.
- 6.11 If a client is obliged in terms of the rules of any medical scheme or for any other reason, to refund a portion of the total amount awarded or obtained the cap and limitation referred to in Section 2(2) shall apply to the net amount recovered after the refund is deducted.

7. Review of agreement or fees in terms of Section 5 of the Act

- 7.1 A client of a legal practitioner who wishes to refer a contingency fee agreement or fee charged in terms thereof to the Legal Practice Council, Provincial Council or delegated Body for review shall do so in writing or with assistance as contemplated in 7.3 below.
- 7.2 The Legal Practice Council, Provincial Council or delegated Body, , shall, within 30 days acknowledge receipt of the complaint, and unless already submitted, provide the complainant with a complaint submission form as may be prescribed by the Legal Practice Council.
- 7.3 If required, the Legal Practice Council, Provincial Council or delegated Body shall appoint an official to assist the complainant to complete Form 2.
- 7.4 Upon receipt of a duly completed Form 2 a copy shall be referred to the legal practitioner referred to therein who must respond in writing within 20 days.
- 7.5 The fee dispute shall be determined in accordance with the applicable fee dispute procedure as stipulated by the Legal Practice Council.
- 7.6 If Council, when considering a complaint and or the decision of a review committee is of the opinion that the conduct of any legal practitioner involved requires further investigation it shall refer the complaint to its disciplinary committee to enable it to conduct formal disciplinary proceedings.

8. Powers of the Court

The provisions of these Rules do not derogate in any way from the power of the Court to adjudicate upon and make orders in respect of matters concerning the conduct of a legal practitioner.
