Note that operators providing scholar services are exempted from the requirement of an operating licence for any non-daily (intermittent) trips involving scholars (see section 53 of the NLTA);

2. A passenger list printed on the school's letterhead must be kept in the vehicle. This list must show the names, residential addresses (including street names) and contact details of all parents/guardians as well as the contact details of the school's administrator;

3. The vehicle specified in this operating licence must be taken to a municipal testing station every six months for a roadworthy test and this must be reflected on the National Traffic Information System;

4. In the case of pre-primary and primary school learners and learners with physical, mental or visual disabilities, a responsible adult (other than the driver) must be on the vehicle to manage learners; and

5. Despite contrary provisions in the NRTA, the operator may not load more than the number of passengers (learners) specified in this operating licence.
