ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE DEDICATED COURTS FOR THE HEARING OF ALLEGED OFFENCES ASSOCIATED WITH THE 2023 BRICS SUMMIT

1. The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development has a constitutional obligation to ensure that, the rights of all people who are within the borders of the country are protected. In the furtherance of this constitutional mandate, the Department is putting extraordinary measures in place to ensure that the cases involving the participants who will be coming from BRICS countries are fast tracked.
2. The Department in conjunction with the Justice Crime Prevention and Security Cluster, which includes the South African Police Service (SAPS), the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA), Legal Aid South Africa (LASA) and the Judiciary, developed an Administration of Justice Plan to be implemented in order to deal with alleged offences associated with the 2023 BRICS summit. The courts listed in the Schedule below will, from 21 to 25 August 2023, be open to the public to hear cases associated with the 2023 BRICS summit, for the following times: 16h00 to 22h00.
