No. 35, 1966.]

ACT

To amend the State-aided Institutions Act, 1931, by the insertion of section 9A in terms of which the administration of the Act may by proclamation be assigned to different Ministers; and to provide for matters incidental thereto.

*(English text signed by the State President.)
(Assented to 3rd October, 1966.)*

BE IT ENACTED by the State President, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

1. The following section is hereby inserted after section 9 of the State-aided Institutions Act, 1931 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act):

Insertion of section 9A in Act 23 of 1931.

“Administration of
Act.

9A. (1) The State President may by proclamation in the Gazette assign the administration of the provisions of this Act to any Minister, or partly to one Minister and partly to another Minister or other Ministers, or any part thereof for certain purposes to one Minister and for other purposes to another Minister, or assign to different Ministers the administration of any of the said provisions in so far as they relate to different institutions, and may in such proclamation prescribe the powers and functions that shall be exercised and performed by the respective Ministers; and may further prescribe that any power or duty conferred or imposed by this Act upon a Minister shall be exercised or performed by one Minister acting in consultation with another Minister.

(2) The State President may from time to time vary or amend any such proclamation.”.

2. Section 10 of the principal Act is hereby amended by the substitution for the definition of “Minister” of the following definition:

Amendment of section 10 of Act 23 of 1931, as amended by section 4 of Act 48 of 1954.

“‘Minister’, in any provision of this Act, means the Minister to whom, or the Minister to whom acting in consultation with another Minister, the administration of that provision has been assigned by proclamation issued under section 9A.”.

3. This Act shall be called the State-aided Institutions Short title. Amendment Act, 1966.

No. 37, 1966.]

ACT

To amend the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act, 1961, in order to abolish the requirement that the State President's recommendation be obtained in respect of any appropriation, in so far as that requirement applies in respect of an appropriation initiated by a Minister.

*(English text signed by the State President.)
(Assented to 5th October, 1966.)*

BE IT ENACTED by the State President, the Senate and the House of Assembly of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

1. The following section is hereby substituted for section 62 of the Republic of South Africa Constitution Act, 1961:

Substitution of section 62 of Act
32 of 1961.

“Recommendation of appropriation not initiated by a Minister. 62. The House of Assembly shall not consider any proposal whether by way of a vote or by way of a resolution, address or Bill, for the appropriation of any part of the public revenue or of any tax or impost to any purpose, which has not been initiated by a Minister, unless such appropriation has been recommended by message from the State President during the session in which such proposal is made.”.

2. This Act shall be called the Constitution Amendment Act, Short title. 1966.

No. 38, 1966.]
